Twice is Nice Thrift Store Seeks Co-Manager

Twice is Nice is a fun and friendly thrift store in the heart of Hinesburg, carrying carefully selected women's clothing, shoes and accessories, and small and decorative household goods. All proceeds benefit the work of the Hinesburg Community Resource Center (HCRC), a nonprofit organization. We are seeking a qualified individual to serve as Co-Manager of the shop. The position is per-diem and is 6-8 hours per week, starting this fall. Duties will include: recruiting/managing volunteers and paid staff; overseeing pricing, merchandising and donations; stocking the shop and overseeing sales and change of season; marketing and promotion; tracking revenue and expenses; and working at least 6 hours in the shop during weekday hours. Wages are $15/hr. We are looking for a friendly, flexible person with a passion for thrift shopping, knowledge of brands and items of value, social media experience, and a heart for supporting the community programming provided by HCRC. If you would like to apply, please send inquiries to HCRC Board Chair, Ginny Roberts, at groberts@gmavt.net and call Co-Coordinator, Mary Crane, with any questions at 324-2189. More information about the shop and about the Hinesburg Community Resource Center can be found at www.hinesburgresource.org.
